Otter's will open third location

Nashville Business Journal

Otter's Chicken Tenders, the locally-owned casual dining restaurant, will be open a third location in East Nashville at the 5th & Main mixed-use development.

The restaurant known for freshly cooked chicken tenders will be on the first level of the condominium development on Main St., which is scheduled for completion in Sept.

Otter's East Nashville will be a 3,168 square-foot sports-themed restaurant with plasma TVs, a beer-only bar area, outdoor seating and underground retail parking garage. The location is close to LP Field.

"We are eager to bring our famous chicken tenders to East Nashville and think this prime location and growing market are ideal for our newest restaurant," said Talbott Ottinger, president and founder of Otter's Chicken Tenders. "We are particularly pleased to provide this convenient location at 5th and Main, which is soon to become a thriving community where people live, dine and shop. With one of our owners living in East Nashville, it seemed to be a perfect fit for us once he realized the need for family friendly dining options in the area."

5th & Main, developed by The Home Co., offers lofts, flats, townhomes and retail and commercial space on the bottom.

Otter's offers fried and grilled chicken tenders in wraps, sandwiches or on salads.

"Otter's locally-owned, quality operation and tasty food makes it an ideal fit for 5th & Main and for East Nashville," said Steve Neighbors, President of 5th and Main, Inc. "Our residents will enjoy having a flavorful and reasonably priced restaurant at their doorsteps."

Otters currently has locations near Music Row and in Cool Springs.
